Summary. "Among the Impostors" is a novel for older children and young adults by award-winning author Margaret Peterson Haddix. In the novel, 12-year-old Luke Garner begins attending Hendricks School for Boys under the name Lee Grant. Luke is a third child - or 'shadow child' - and is illegal because of the country's Population Law which states that couples can only have two children, and so is forced to live under a false identity to avoid being caught and executed.
