Judy Boone (Mother) We only hear Judy's name once, when Christopher first arrives in London. Otherwise, we mainly know her as "Mother." For the first half of the book, we think she's dead, since that's what Christopher has been told by his father. In reality, she ran away with the next-door neighbor, Mr. Shears. So we don't really know much about her until Christopher discovers the letters she's been writing him every week for two years, but that his father has been hiding from him.
