The actual Dragon Games is just one of the adventures and my only negative is that the author maybe should have made the story more about this conflict (as it is the title of the book) or changed the title all together. The adventures come quickly to an end and of course as it does in the first book the book ends simarly to a serial soap opera ...

The book hold far too many plot holes and arbitrary sub plots that seemed to only be there to take up space. The sub tittle of the book should have been “the land of tyrants” as the book does not have the main character in any ‘dragon games’, let alone a full grown dragon like the literal cover of the book implies.
