A personal recount should describe events and activities that happened. To effectively describe such actions, you will need to use plenty of "action words," more formally known as "verbs." For example, if you write about the games you played when your cousin visited you, you will need to state everything you did: "I played baseball," "We raced each other to the park," "My cousin and I painted pictures."

Recount The movie recount is a very good representation of what happened during the 2000 election between George W. Bush and Al Gore. It dives into the legal battle between the two campaigns as the recount of Florida's votes kept the nation waiting for over a month. Although the movie shows both sides of the story, I believe the Democrats supported the making of this movie.
