Marikina and shoes | Inquirer Opinion

The shoe industry in Marikina, famously known as the shoe capital of the Philippines, was started in 1887 by Don Laureano Guevarra, better known as "Kapitan Moy". Kapitan Moy tried to personally fix his imported shoes because he did not want to go all the way to Manila, where Chinese artisans were the only ones who were doing shoe repair and shoe manufacturing. There was nobody in Marikina who could fix shoes as the Marikenos were involved only in the production of slippers and wooden clogs.
