The Value of Everything: Making and Taking in the Global ...

These are but a few of the challenging questions Mariana Mazzucato, a professor in the economics of innovation and public value at University College London, raises in her scholarly study, The Value of Everything: Making and Taking in the Global Economy. Mazzucato offers a radical analysis that is grounded in a transformation of the economy from what she identifies as a “‘makers’ versus ‘takers’” society, one in which value “creators” have been superseded by value ...

BOOK LAUNCH—THE VALUE OF EVERYTHING: MAKING AND TAKING IN ...

In this scathing indictment of our current global financial system, The Value of Everything rigorously scrutinizes the way in which economic value has been determined and reveals how the difference between value creation and value extraction has become increasingly blurry. Mariana Mazzucato argues that this blurriness allowed certain actors in the economy to portray themselves as value creators, while in reality they were just moving existing value around or, even worse, destroying it.

Book Review: The Value of Everything: Making and Taking in the Global Economy by Mariana Mazzucato. In The Value of Everything: Making and Taking in the Global Economy, Mariana Mazzucato explores the concept of value today, showing how value extraction is now more highly rewarded than value creation. This is a meticulous and insightful analysis of value in the economy that will help to reopen the debate into 'the value of everything', writes Wannaphong Durongkaverroj.
